1. History Hall

Baba, what Thou wantest me to be in this Yagya?

What my part shall be I know not...

What for You had sent me out in the World I know not.

What I have gained out of Madhuban that also I know not.

But my Final goal is clear....

How intensely this Madhuban & its Palana has filled me within I can't tell!

What greater happiness or bliss can befall man other than this?

Baba, this soul has tasted the supersensuous bliss of Thy love...

However enticing or sweet may be the worldly toys I can't relish all that...

Baba, Thy divine love has filled me.....

2. Baba's room

All waste,
All negative,
Have merged into this gigantic silence.
Silence has filled me....to the core.
A reawakening of the desire to be totally detached from the body...A floating stage...
A wingless cloud...a light straw in the air...an airy experience.
My own perfected & completed Stage beacons me....
Baba calls me ...Mamma signals me...

“Come Sweetest Baba, thy home Madhuban callest thee, come soon...soon!”

The life of tapasya awaits me....
The unlimited disinterest calls me....

3. Shantistamb

Ay divine Stamb, Every evening thou takest me away from this Mortal world ...

The Assembly of Angels around thee
All lost in the pacific vibrations of Peace & Purity...

May all evenings of this Sangam Yuga be drenched in the oceanic silence of this Tower of Peace!

This Silence takes away my desire to come into this world of noise.

Let thy radiant rays impregnate my soul throughout all my remaining days of this life...

Baba, whenever I shall speak bless me that the power of peace shall speak through me.

4. Baba's Kutiya

Thy Angelic presence detaches me
From all worldly- spiritual subtle entanglements....

The four walls of this kutiya,
These windows, these doors,
This bed & pillow below your translight,
This Bhandari, this letter box,
This garden, this swing,
This Calm, this serene & light atmosphere –
All is penetrating me deeply,
Suffusing my inner self,
Thus making me feel light & divine
All waste & negativities, as if erased off, I feel like an angel in the carb of light...
Baba, thy divine rays, I perceive, are clearly penetrating this soul...
I feel as if I had never gone out of this Kutiya...
It's my first tapasya Bhumi...
It's the Shrine where I had experienced & I do always experience soul-consciousness.

This all Madhuban appears to be like the subtle world
Where all the souls I see clad in the dress of light.
My body is also light filled with divinity,
My senses are still, and my soul lost in the love divine....
